LAWRENCE COUNTY

County Commission

ADMINISTRATOR

Joan Lang

February 20, 1997

Excerpts from minutes of Lawrence County Commission Meeting held on the 26th day of July, 1995.

Judge Phillip Reich discussed the announcement of the Olympic Torch Run which will take place in Lawrence County in June, 1996, in honor of the late Jesse Owens. He stated that this will be a very significant event for Lawrence County and that ceremonies are planned for the Jesse Owens Memorial Park. He advised the Commission that the Jesse Owens Memorial Park Board, which has been in place for 13 years, has been working towards this accomplishment for several years. Through efforts of this Board, many things are planned for this park including a replica of Jesse Owens birthplace, a museum, a welcome reception area, a track and a monument, and he suggested that this existing Board continue to make decisions and be the media body for plans and events for this Olympic event.

Motion: It is ordered by the on motion of Jim Corum, seconded by Wayne Anderton and unanimously adopted to approve the Jesse Owens Memorial Park Board as the coordinating authority for plans and events for the Olympic Torch Run.
